In Regard to Mrs. Alley vs. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. with respect to the Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. "Smart Meter Upgrade Opt Out Medical Waiver" form

Answer to letters from Mr. Josh Minges, Esquire, the Hearing Examiner of The Public Service Commission of the State of South Carolina, dated 16 September 2020 and 22 September 2020.

Docket No. 2020-186-E

The Complainant, Mrs. Alley, respectfully requests that Mr. Josh Minges, Esquire, the Hearing Examiner of The Public Service Commission of the State of South Carolina, provide via fax the procedural rules by which both the Complainant and Mr. Matthew W. Gissendanner, the lawyer for the monopoly Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc., must abide for a status conference.

The Complainant not being aware of the required rules puts the Complainant at a severe disadvantage against the lawyer for the multi-billion dollar monopoly Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. The Complainant does not want to make a small error that could damage The Public Service Commission of the State of South Carolina's willingness to consider the Complainant's request.

In addition, the Complainant, Mrs. Alley, respectfully requests that Mr. Josh Minges, Esquire, the Hearing Examiner of The Public Service Commission of the State of South Carolina, provide via fax information about the following:

- (1) the exact purpose of the status conference
- (2) the subjects to be discussed at the status conference
- (3) any information we would be required to have available for the status conference
- (4) the exact logistics for the 3 party status conference (i.e. Will Mr. Minges and Mr. Gissendanner be in a room and the Complainant call to the room or will both Mr. Gissendanner and the Complainant call to Mr. Minges in a particular room? If the latter is the case, please explain the logistics with respect to your three way call system.)

The Complainant Mrs. Alley, respectfully requests that Mr. Josh Minges, Esquire, the Hearing Examiner of The Public Service Commission of the State of South Carolina, not schedule the status conference until sometime after the Complainant has received and has had time to review the above aforementioned information that has been requested.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.
